

INTERNATIONAL LAW OF THE SEA

21 TO 25 JANUARY 2019

Sponsored by the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME

under the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME TRAINING AWARD

Singapore Cooperation Programme

Singapore has provided technical assistance to other developing countries since the 1960s. As a country whose only resource is its people, Singapore believes that human resource development is vital for economic and social progress. Singapore itself has benefited from training provided by other countries and international organisations.

In 1992, the Singapore Cooperation Programme (SCP) was established to bring together under one framework the various technical assistance programmes offered by Singapore. Through the SCP, the range and number of training programmes were increased to share Singapore's development experience with other developing countries.

To date, Singapore has sponsored training courses and study visits for over 122,000 officials from more than 170 countries. The SCP is managed by the Technical Cooperation Directorate of the Singapore Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Course Objectives

This course focuses on the 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea (UNCLOS) and covers the rights and obligations of states in the various maritime zones. It also examines the rights and obligations of sovereign states in each zone, and the role of key international organisations such as the International Maritime Organisation (IMO), the Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO) Fisheries Division, and International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea (ITLOS).

Synopsis

Topics to be covered include:

- Overview of International Law and Law of the Sea
- Maritime boundary delimitation and economic zones
- UNCLOS dispute settlement mechanisms
- Maritime scientific research

Methodology

This course will be highly engaging, intensive, experiential and dynamic, packed with learning journeys, hands-on and experience sharing. Training will be interspersed with formal lectures, class activities and group discussions.

Duration

The course will be held from 21 to 25 January 2019.
